

Dr Simon Smale – Declaration of Interests January 2019

Formal Roles

1. I employed as Clinical Director of Gastrointestinal Services and Gastroenterologist by Manchester Foundation NHS Trust (paid)
2. I undertake work as Trustee and Current Chairperson of the IBS Network (unpaid)
3. I am a Patron of Selby Hands of Hope, a charity set up to relieve distress and hardship in and around the District of Selby (unpaid)

Additional Payments and Honoraria

1. I undertake ad hoc work for Positive Communications writing articles and media communications on the subject of IBS and GI disease. Much of this work is commissioned by the makers of Alforex, Alimentary Health.
2. I undertake occasional paid speaking Engagements, In the last 2 years these have included Janssen Pharmaceuticals, Falk Pharma.
3. Later this year I am being sponsored to attend an IBD Conference by Vifor Pharmaceuticals
4. I undertake occasional unpaid speaking engagements for the Gut Stuff (See link opposite)
5. I undertake voluntary work (unpaid) for a number of media and gut Health related organisations and have in the last 2 years done over 30 articles or interviews for The BBC, Huffington Post, The Sunday Times, The Express, The Mail, Women's Own and a range of Medical and Nursing Publications, often via my association with the IBS Network .

Informal Relationships

1. I have informal relationships with a number of research and innovation related bodies including Health Innovation Greater Manchester, Bold Health, IBD Relief, Ampersand (myIBDcare). None of these roles is remunerated.